

The Mission and Role of the NGO Representative to Vienna for Human Trafficking

Mission:

The mission of the NGO representative to Vienna is to bring the presence and voice of the Congregation to the work of the United Nations on Human Trafficking according to the congregational direction statement

Responsibilities include:

1. Serve as a link person between the Congregation and UN structures dealing with Human Trafficking particularly the UN trafficking unit, Office of Drugs and Crime, (ODC) in Vienna. In addition, since the human rights aspects of human trafficking are dealt with in Geneva and social economic aspects dealt with in New York the NGO Vienna representative, working through the structures in Vienna will also coordinate trafficking information from Geneva and New York, in conjunction with the NGO representatives in those locations.
2. Identify opportunities and devise strategies to promote Good Shepherd voice on anti-trafficking. An understanding of the structures of the UN ODC will be essential to this function.
3. Communicate and coordinate with the GSIJP Team, Regional NGO Designates, Unit Leaders and JP contacts.
4. Network and develop collaborative working relationships with other NGO's addressing human trafficking.
5. Attend relevant meetings and maintain information taking note of new policy developments on human trafficking that can be of service to congregational ministries and advocacy work.
6. Animate and communicate with the Good Shepherd network.
7. Report annually to the GSIJP Office.
8. This position is envisioned as a part time position.

Updated July 31, 2011

---

“Our commitment to reconciliation demands that we promote justice and peace...”