

The Mission and Role of the GSIJP Training Facilitator

Mission:

The mission of the GSIJP Training Facilitator is to promote the living out of Justice Peace at grassroots levels through animation and capacity building for effective justice and peace commitments that are responsive to congregational directions and consistent with International GS NGO initiatives.

Responsibilities include:

1. Develop curricula materials on topics of Justice, NGO functioning, Human Rights, Networking, Social Analysis, etc. that can be presented to, used by, and/or adapted in local formation programs, initial and ongoing.
2. Train in regions and units on JP/NGO topics as developed in conjunction with the region/units' articulated needs and the activities of the GSIJP office.
3. Prepare congregational materials – corporate statements, position papers, etc. – related to the priority areas of the Congregational commitment to justice, i.e. Trafficking, Migration and Poverty.
4. Be available for consultation, mentoring, and/or evaluation of existing formation and training.
5. Work in conjunction with the Congregational Leadership Team liaison and the GSIJP Team to develop international sessions for capacity building in the areas of justice.

Updated July 31, 2011

---

“Our commitment to reconciliation demands that we promote justice and peace...”